

EAA ONLINE WS

Identity and Movements

東アジア藝文書院

【Time & Date】

14:00~17:00 (JST)

Monday, March 22, 2021

【To Join】

Please register:

https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_dD\_-ZNYCSsOPCGz5kTBHlg

【Language】 English

Identity is still lingering as an essential part of the socio-political arena in East Asia even in the 21st century. Following up on the previous event, “Identity, History, and Mobilization: Japanese War Orphans from China” held in Nov. 2020, in this workshop we attempt to explore a variety of identities manifested in East Asia and furthermore how it is linked with and even stimulates movements.

PROGRAM

- 14:00-14:05 Opening Remark
- 14:05-14:35 SHIRAKAWA Takeshi (PhD student, University of Hawaii)
“Disturbance or Exception? The Negotiation of Identity for Japanese Returnees”
- 14:35-15:05 SAKIHAMA Sana (EAA Project Research Fellow)
“‘Political Philosophy’ of Ifa Fuyū: The Limits of Identity Politics”
- 15:05-15:20 Break
- 15:20-15:50 AOKI Yoshiyuki (Visiting Lecturer, Dokkyo University)
“Identity, Violence, and Student Movements: A case study of Korean student movement in democratized Korea”
- 15:50-16:20 UM Hye-Won (PhD, UW) and KOO Yoojin (EAA Project Assistant Professor)
“Legal Mobilization as a Movement Tactic: A Preliminary Study of War Responsibility Related Cases in Japan”
- 16:20-16:30 Break
- 16:30-17:00 General Discussion & Closing Remark
- Commentator CHEUNG Ching-yuen (Associate Professor, UTokyo)
UM Hye-Won (UW)
- Moderator KOO Yoojin (EAA)